Memorandum of Understanding

SPACE and CCID intend to enter into cooperation on the following:

The above Organisations will not pay membership fees to each other.

Services offered between the two organisations will be priced on an individual basis in each case.

SPACE members are Institutions of Higher Education/Universities.

CCID member colleges range from Community Colleges in the United States, FHE colleges, Technical Institutions and full universities offering from Associated Degrees to master/ Ph.D. degrees.

The two organisations may recommend new members to each other.

Institutions may decide to become members of both provided that they meet the respective membership criteria.

The two organizations are committed to mentioning the mutual cooperation on the website of their network by putting a direct link to each other's website.

The overall objectives would be to join efforts in achieving projects in a global perspective, as well as offering "A Day at the Office" to CCID members and to other organisations associated with CCID for a fee to be paid to the SPACE Headquarter, that will organise, validate the exam and issue a specific SPACE certificate.

This Memorandum of Understanding is signed on 9 April 2008, in Valencia, Spain.

Memorandum of Understanding

This memorandum of understanding is intended to reinforce the underlying philosophy of both signatories, that is to say that Education and Learning in a global context is necessary for the balanced development of society and learners whatever their origin, age or status.

The CCID (Community Colleges for International Development) and SPACE (European Network for Business Studies and Languages) agree to work together in order to provide opportunities for building global relationships that strengthen educational and professional programs, and promote economic development by sharing resources, activities or skills. The overall objectives would be to join efforts in achieving projects in a global perspective.
